Young Artist Showcase

Maine Media Gallery had such a great experience putting together our 2015 Young Artist Showcase. We love the talent and energy that these photographers bring to the the Maine Media Gallery, and after such a successful exhibition last Fall, we are pleased to host a second annual Young Artist Showcase. The exhibition will feature selected work by students (ages 14-18) who have participated in the Young Artist Program at Maine Media Workshops + College. The program offers students the opportunity to delve into photography through an intensive, creative experience, learning from world-renowned photographers and developing their own artistic voices.
