POLICY

It is the policy of the organization to treat employees with life-threatening illnesses, such as cancer, heart disease, AIDS and HIV infection as disabilities in accordance with our policy on Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) and the requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 and the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. In addition to the provisions of the EEO policy on non-discrimination and reasonable accommodation for disability, the following guidelines are intended to assist supervisors in maintaining a work environment that is responsive to the workplace issues created by life-threatening illnesses and the concerns of employees who may request assistance.

PROCEDURE

The organization recognizes that a supportive and caring response from co-workers is an important factor in maintaining the quality of life for an employee with a life-threatening illness. An employee's health condition is private and confidential. An employee with a life-threatening illness is under no obligation to disclose his or her condition to a supervisor or any other employee of the organization. Medical information on individual employees is confidential. The organization will take reasonable precautions to protect such information from inappropriate disclosure. Everyone has a responsibility to respect and maintain the confidentiality of employees' medical information.

An employee with a life-threatening illness is expected to meet the same performance requirements applicable to other employees, with reasonable accommodation if necessary. If an employee becomes disabled, the supervisor and president will make reasonable accommodation, as with any other employee with a disability, to enable the employee to meet established performance criteria. Reasonable accommodation may include, but is not limited to, flexible or part-time work schedules, leaves of absence, or job reassignment.

120.035 – SEXUAL HARASSMENT & SEXUAL VIOLENCE POLICY – TITLE IV

Date Revised: October 2018

POLICY

MMW+C (Maine Media Workshops + College) policies prohibit all sexual misconduct. MMW+C is committed to the prevention of such misconduct, and to the fair treatment of all MMW+C community members in the event of such misconduct. This policy applies to all students, faculty, and staff of MMW+C, regardless of sexual orientation or gender identity. This policy also applies to third parties.

Disclosures to Alleged Complainants of Crimes of Violence or Non-forcible Sex Offenses.

MMW+C will, upon written request, disclose to the alleged complainant of a crime of violence, or a non-forcible sex offense, the results of any disciplinary hearing conducted by MMW+C against the individual who is the alleged perpetrator of the crime or offense. If the alleged complainant is deceased as a result of the crime or offense, MMW+C will provide the results of the disciplinary hearing to the complainant's next of kin, if so requested.

Sex Offender Registration

MMW+C only performs background checks on individuals who are employed in positions that have direct contact with students enrolled in Maine Media's Youth Program. The background check performed includes national and local sex offender registries. MMW+C does not maintain a list of registered sex offenders on all who may be associated with MMW+C.

<https://www.rainn.org/about-national-sexual-assault-telephone-hotline>

<http://www.mecasa.org/maine-resources-2/>

This policy applies to all operations of MMW+C.

The policy is broken down into three sections:

What is Sexual Harassment and Sexual Violence?

How to Report Sexual Harassment and Sexual Violence; and

How an Investigation is Conducted

WHAT IS SEXUAL HARASSMENT AND SEXUAL VIOLENCE?

1. Sexual Harassment is unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature, including but not limited to unwelcome sexual advances; requests for sexual favors; or other verbal or nonverbal conduct of a sexual nature, including rape, sexual assault, and sexual exploitation. In addition, depending on the facts, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking may also be forms of sexual harassment.
2. Unwelcome Conduct. Conduct is considered “unwelcome” if the individual did not request or invite it and considered the conduct to be undesirable or offensive. Unwelcome conduct may take various forms, including: name-calling, graphic or written statements (including the use of cell phones or the Internet), or other conduct that may be physically threatening, harmful, or humiliating. Unwelcome conduct does not have to include intent to harm, be directed at a specific target, or involve repeated incidents. Unwelcome conduct can involve persons of the same or opposite sex. Participation in the conduct or the failure to complain does not always mean that the conduct was welcome. The fact that an individual may have welcomed some conduct does not necessarily mean that the individual welcomed other conduct. Also, the fact that an individual requested or invited conduct on one occasion does not mean that the conduct is welcome on a subsequent occasion.
3. Hostile environment caused by sexual harassment. A “hostile environment” exists when sex-based harassment is sufficiently serious to deny or limit the individual’s ability to work or participate in or benefit from the Organization’s programs or activities.

A hostile environment can be created by anyone working or is involved in the organization’s program or activity (e.g., administrators, faculty members, students, and campus visitors). In determining whether sex-based harassment has created a hostile environment, the Organization considers the conduct in question from both a subjective and objective perspective. It will be necessary, but not enough, that the conduct was unwelcome to the individual who was harassed. But the Organization will also need to find that a reasonable person in the individual’s position would have perceived the conduct as undesirable or offensive in order for that conduct to create or contribute to a hostile environment. To make the ultimate determination of whether a hostile environment exists for an individual(s), the organization considers a variety of factors related to the severity, persistence, or pervasiveness of the sex-based harassment, including: (1) the type, frequency, and duration of the conduct; (2) the identity and relationships of persons involved; (3) the number of individuals involved; (4) the location of the conduct and the context in which it occurred; and, (5) the degree to which the conduct affected one or more individual’s work or education.

The more severe the sex-based harassment, the less need there is to show a repetitive series of incidents to find a hostile environment. Indeed, a single instance of sexual assault may be sufficient to create a hostile environment. Likewise, a series of incidents may be sufficient even if the sex-based harassment is not particularly severe.

First Amendment Considerations. This policy does not impair the exercise of rights protected under the First Amendment. The organization’s sexual misconduct policy prohibits only sex-based harassment that creates a hostile environment. In this and other ways, the organization applies and enforces this policy in a manner that respects the First Amendment rights of students, staff, faculty, and others.

4. Gender-based Harassment is unwelcome conduct of a nonsexual nature based on an individual’s actual or perceived sex, including conduct based on gender identity, gender expression, and nonconformity with gender stereotypes.
5. Sexual Assault is actual or attempted sexual contact with another person without that person’s consent. Sexual assault includes, but is not limited to:
 - Intentional touching of another person’s intimate parts without that person’s consent; or
 - Other intentional sexual contact with another person without that person’s consent; or
 - Coercing, forcing, or attempting to coerce or force a person to touch another person’s intimate parts without that person’s consent; or

- Rape, which is penetration, no matter how slight, of (1) the vagina or anus of a person by any body part of another person or by an object, or (2) the mouth of a person by a sex organ of another person, without that person's consent.
6. Dating violence is defined as violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the complainant. The existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on the reporting party's statement and with consideration of the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship. For the purposes of this definition
 - dating violence includes, but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse or the threat of such abuse.
 - dating violence does not include acts covered under the definition of domestic violence.
 7. Domestic Violence is defined as a felony or misdemeanor crime of violence committed
 - by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the complainant.
 - by a person with whom the complainant shares a child in common.
 - by a person who is cohabitating with, or has cohabitated with, the complainant as a spouse or intimate partner.
 - by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the complainant under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred;
 - by any other person against an adult or youth complainant who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred.
 8. Sexual Exploitation occurs when a person takes sexual advantage of another person for the benefit of anyone other than that person without that person's consent. Examples of behavior that could rise to the level of sexual exploitation include:
 - Prostituting another person;
 - Recording images (e.g., video, photograph) or audio of another person's sexual activity, intimate body parts, or nakedness without that person's consent;
 - Distributing images (e.g., video, photograph) or audio of another person's sexual activity, intimate body parts, or nakedness, if the individual distributing the images or audio knows or should have known that the person depicted in the images or audio did not consent to such disclosure and objects to such disclosure;and,
 - Viewing another person's sexual activity, intimate body parts, or nakedness in a place where that person would have a reasonable expectation of privacy, without that person's consent, and for the purpose of arousing or gratifying sexual desire.
 9. Stalking is defined as engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to
 - fear for the person's safety or the safety of others; or
 - suffer substantial emotional distress.
 10. Non-forcible sex offenses include sexual conduct with individuals that the law assumes are not capable of giving consent to sexual acts such as underage individuals, physically helpless, and mentally incompetent individuals.

Consent

"Consent" must be informed, voluntary, and mutual, and can be withdrawn at any time. There is no consent when there is force, expressed or implied, or when coercion, intimidation, threats, or duress is used. Whether a person has taken advantage of a position of influence over another person may be a factor in determining consent. Silence or absence of resistance does not imply consent. Past consent to sexual activity with another person does not imply ongoing future consent with that person or consent to that same sexual activity with another person.

If a person is mentally or physically incapacitated or impaired so that such person cannot understand the fact, nature, or extent of the sexual situation, there is no consent; this includes impairment or incapacitation due to alcohol or drug consumption that meets this standard, or being asleep or unconscious.

HOW TO REPORT SEXUAL HARRASEMENT OR SEXUAL VIOLENCE

Complaint Confidentiality

When an individual reports any incident of sexual misconduct to any MMW+C Responsible Employee, the Responsible Employee will report such information to the Title IX Coordinator. The organization will take immediate and appropriate steps to investigate what happened and to resolve the matter promptly and equitably. MMW+C will need to determine what happened— including the names of the complainant and alleged perpetrator(s), any witnesses, and any other relevant facts, including the date, time and specific location of the alleged incident.

To the extent possible, information reported to the organization employee will be shared only with people responsible for handling the organization's response to the report. MMW+C employees will not share information with law enforcement without the complainant's consent or unless the complainant has also reported the incident to law enforcement.

Before a complainant reveals any information to an MMW+C employee, the employee should ensure that the complainant understands the employee's reporting obligations – and, if the complainant wants to maintain complete confidentiality and anonymity, direct the complainant to resources outside of MMW+C.

If the complainant wants to tell the MMW+C employee what happened but also maintain confidentiality, the employee should tell the complainant that the organization will consider the request, but cannot guarantee that the organization will be able to honor it. In reporting the details of the incident to the Title IX Coordinator, the employee will also inform the Coordinator of the complainant's request for confidentiality.

MMW+C employees will not pressure a complainant to request confidentiality, but will honor and support the complainant's wishes, including for the organization to fully investigate an incident. By the same token, employees will not pressure a complainant to make a full report if the complainant is not ready to.

Responsible Employees

A responsible employee is an organization employee who has the authority to address incidents of sexual violence, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking and is obligated to report such incidents, or whom an individual could reasonably believe has this authority or duty. Responsible employees are respectful of a complainant's wishes to the extent appropriate and are discreet, but they are not able to maintain confidentiality. Responsible employees at the organization include staff members at the Director level or above.

General inquiries or questions about the Sexual Misconduct, Domestic Violence, Dating Violence and Stalking Policy and procedures do not have to be reported, and the organization will strive to protect the privacy interests of individuals to the extent it can while maintaining its obligations to uphold relevant policies and regulations and/or to take reasonable steps to promote the safety of members of the organizations community. Otherwise, once any employee learns of an incident of sexual misconduct, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking, written or unwritten, the employee must immediately notify the Title IX Coordinator of such complaint.

The employee must report all relevant details about the incident (such as the name of the complainant and respondent, any witnesses, and other relevant facts, such as the date, time and specific location of the alleged incident). Such notice to the organization generally obligates the organization to investigate the incident and take appropriate steps to address the situation. Within the requirements of applicable laws and policy, confidentiality will be observed as practicable.

If a complainant discloses an incident to a responsible employee but wishes to maintain confidentiality or requests that no investigation into a particular incident be conducted or disciplinary action taken, the organization will weigh that request against the organization's obligation to provide a safe, non-discriminatory environment for all individuals, including the complainant. If the organization honors the request for confidentiality, a complainant must understand that the organization will be unable to conduct an investigation into the particular incident or pursue disciplinary action against the alleged perpetrator. Although rare, there are times when the organization may not be able to honor a complainant's request in order to provide a safe, non-discriminatory environment for all individuals.

The organization will protect the confidentiality of individuals allegedly subjected to sexual misconduct, domestic violence, dating violence and/or stalking to the extent practicable in light of the need to do investigations and conduct disciplinary proceedings.

Complaint Confidentiality Request

If a complainant discloses an incident to an MMW+C employee but wishes to maintain confidentiality or requests that no investigation into a particular incident be conducted or disciplinary action taken, the organization must weigh that request against its obligation to provide a safe, non-discriminatory environment for all students, including the complainant.

Due to the small size of the organization MMW+C does not provide any counselors who would maintain the complete confidentiality and anonymity of a complainant. If a complainant wishes to receive support while maintaining anonymity, they should contact support services outside of MMW+C. This website is a helpful starting point: <https://www.notalone.gov/students/>

If MMW+C honors the request for confidentiality, a complainant must understand that the organization's ability to meaningfully investigate the incident and pursue disciplinary action against the alleged perpetrator(s) may be limited.

Although rare, there are times when the organization may not be able to honor a complainant's request in order to provide a safe, non-discriminatory environment for all.

MMW+C has designated a Title IX coordinator to evaluate requests for confidentiality once an employee is on notice of alleged sexual violence.

When weighing a complainant's request for confidentiality or that no investigation or discipline be pursued, the Title IX Coordinator will consider a range of factors, including the following:

- The increased risk that the alleged perpetrator will commit additional acts of sexual or other violence, such as:
 - whether there have been other sexual violence complaints about the same alleged perpetrator;
 - whether the alleged perpetrator has a history of arrests or records from a prior organization indicating a history of violence;
 - whether the alleged perpetrator threatened further sexual violence or other violence against the complainant or others;
 - whether the sexual violence was committed by multiple perpetrators;
- whether the sexual violence was perpetrated with a weapon;
- whether the complainant is a minor;
- whether the organization possesses other means to obtain relevant evidence of the sexual violence (e.g., security cameras or personnel, physical evidence);
- whether the complainant's report reveals a pattern of perpetration (e.g., via illicit use of drugs or alcohol) at a given location or by a particular group.

The presence of one or more of these factors could lead MMW+C to investigate and, if appropriate, pursue disciplinary action. If none of these factors is present, MMW+C will likely respect the complainant's request for confidentiality.

If MMW+C determines that it cannot maintain a complainant's confidentiality, MMW+C will inform the complainant prior to starting an investigation and will, to the extent possible, only share information with people responsible for handling the organization's response.

The organization will remain ever mindful of the complainant's well-being, and will take ongoing steps to protect the complainant from retaliation or harm and work with the complainant to create a safety plan. Retaliation against the complainant, whether by students or MMW+C employees, will not be tolerated. MMW+C will also:

- assist the complainant in accessing other available complainant advocacy, academic support, counseling, disability, health or mental health services, and legal assistance in the local area or in their place of residence.
- provide other security and support, which could include issuing a no-contact order, helping arrange a change of living or working arrangements or course schedules (including for the alleged perpetrator pending the outcome of an investigation) or adjustments for assignments or tests; and
- inform the complainant of the right to report a crime to local law enforcement – and provide the complainant with assistance if the complainant wishes to do so.

MMW+C may not require a complainant to participate in any investigation or disciplinary proceeding.

If MMW+C determines that it can respect a complainant's request for confidentiality, the organization will also take immediate action as necessary to protect and assist the complainant.

MMW+C's Policy on Sexual Harassment and Sexual Violence are reviewed during the Policies & Procedures Orientation held in June of each year. MMW+C does not offer counseling services for complainants of sex offenses, but will assist individuals in seeking counseling for sex offenses in the local community.

Complainants residing in the organization housing, have the option to change their residency living situations after an alleged sexual assault, if such changes are reasonably available.

FALSE REPORTS

MMW+C will not tolerate false allegations of incidents of sexual harassment or sexual violence.

Complaints made in good faith that are found not to constitute sexual harassment or violence will not be considered false allegations. Any individual who knowingly, maliciously, or frivolously makes a false allegation of sexual harassment or sexual violence will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including suspension, expulsion or termination. Similarly, any party or witness who is later proven to have intentionally given false information during the course of an investigation or conduct process may be subject to disciplinary action.

REPORTING PROCEDURE

COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

This procedure is intended to provide prompt and equitable resolution of complaints of harassment, sexual harassment and sexual violence by individuals.

MAKING A REPORT

1. Individuals may submit a report via MMW+C's online incident report at www.mainemedia/edu/incidentreport
2. A report may be made via Maine Media's hotline at (802) 962-1465.

The individual will be asked to leave a message and contact information (name, phone number, and email address), so MMW+C may follow up on the complaint. For messages left Monday-Friday, the call will be returned within 24 hours. Messages left over the weekend will be followed up on by Tuesday mid-day. All messages are transcribed and forwarded to the Title IX Coordinator(s) email.

Title IX Coordinator

Jane Richardson, Business Manager

email: jrichardson@mainemedia.edu

office phone: 207.236.8581 x308, or cell phone: 207.691.3320

- a. If the complaint is against the Title IX Coordinator, the report should be made to the President. If there is a complaint against the President, the Chair of the Board should be notified of the complaint. In such cases, the Chair of the Board will handle the complaint and shall contact with an outside investigator to investigate the complaint.
 - b. Individuals also have the option to make a report of sexual violence to law enforcement, and will be assisted by the Title IX Coordinator in doing so, if desired.
4. Once a report is made, the Title IX Coordinator may take interim measures to ensure the safety of the individual and/or others. These interim measures will depend on the precise nature and circumstances of the complaint.
 5. When a complainant requests that their name or other identifiable information not be shared with the accused (hereinafter “respondent”) or that no formal action be taken, the organization will balance this request with its obligations to provide a safe environment for all members of the organizations community and to follow the principles of fundamental fairness that require notice and an opportunity to respond before any action is taken against a respondent. The organization will take reasonable steps to investigate and respond to the report consistent with the request for confidentiality or request not to pursue an investigation, but its ability to do so may be limited based on this request.
 6. The Title IX Coordinator will inform the complainant in writing of the evidentiary standard (preponderance of the evidence), potential remedies and sanctions, and sources of counseling, advocacy and support.
 7. If a report of misconduct under this policy indicates that there is a serious and/or continuing threat to the organizations community, the organization may institute an organization wide warning to protect the health or safety of the community. Such warnings will not include any identifying information about the complainant.
 8. Individuals will not be retaliated against for making a complaint or participating in an investigation. Retaliation is illegal under state and federal laws and any retaliation will result in disciplinary measures.

Individuals are encouraged to utilize this complaint procedure. However, individuals are hereby notified that they also have the right to report complaints to the Maine Human Rights Commission, State House Station 51, Augusta, ME 04333 (telephone: 207-624-6290) and/or to the federal Office for Civil Rights, Regional Director, U.S. Department of Education, 5 Post Office Square, 8th Floor, Boston, MA 02110-1491(telephone: 617-289-0111).

B. Complaint Handling

1. The Title IX Coordinator or a designated qualified outside investigator shall meet with the complainant and make an initial assessment of the alleged conduct, including whether any interim measures and/or assistance to the complainant are necessary.
2. The Title IX Coordinator will inform the President that a complaint has been received.
3. If the complainant discloses the name of the alleged respondent, the Title IX Coordinator shall contact him/her to inform him/her that a complaint has been received. In this initial contact, the Title IX Coordinator may keep the name of the complainant confidential. The Title IX Coordinator will inform the complainant in writing of the complaint, the evidentiary standard (preponderance of the evidence), potential remedies and sanctions, and sources of counseling, advocacy and support.
 - a. If the respondent accepts responsibility for misconduct at this point, disciplinary action will be taken based on the facts and circumstances of the particular case.

4. If the respondent does not accept responsibility at this point, the complainant shall be advised of the following options for proceeding:
 - a. If the complainant chooses to pursue a formal complaint, the Title IX Coordinator will personally investigate the complaint, or will obtain the services of an outside investigator to investigate the complaint.
 - b. The complainant may opt out of pursuing a formal complaint, but may still request an opportunity to communicate with the alleged respondent about the effects of the incident in question. This process will not involve mediation if the allegation concerns sexual violence, but it may involve an agreement between the complainant and the respondent about safety measures put in place. The Title IX Coordinator or an outside investigator will oversee this process. The complainant may end this informal process at any time and decide to utilize option (a).

The complainant may request that the organization take no action at all. In such cases, the Title IX Coordinator will assess whether the request for no action can be honored within the broader context of the organization's obligation to maintain a safe community. In making this assessment, the Title IX Coordinator will consider the likelihood that the incident will recur and/or put the larger community at risk and whether there have been other reports of misconduct under this policy naming the same alleged respondent.

HOW AN INVESTIGATION IS CONDUCTED.

The following process will be used when investigations are conducted.

1. The investigator will interview the complainant, the respondent and any other witnesses or individuals with pertinent information, including witnesses named by the complainant and respondent. The complainant and respondent may be accompanied by a supporter at their interviews. At the investigator's discretion, more than one interview may be conducted with individuals involved in the case.
2. The investigator will review any other relevant information, including information provided by the organization and/or law enforcement, as well as any physical evidence and relevant documents (including but not limited to social media posts, text messages, emails, etc.).
3. The investigator may conduct a site visit(s) as necessary.
4. The investigation will be deemed complete when the investigator determines that all available relevant information has been collected and questions explored.
5. The investigator will prepare an investigation report and submit it to the Title IX Coordinator (or the President, if the investigation was conducted by the Title IX Coordinator). The investigator will make factual findings using a preponderance of the evidence standard (more likely than not) whether the respondent committed one or more violations of this policy, and/or other Institute policies.
6. The investigation will be completed as soon as reasonably possible under all of the circumstances of the case, with a target of 60 days.
7. The complainant and the respondent will have an opportunity to review the investigation report. Within ten days of reviewing the report, the parties may submit personal impact statements of no more than five typed pages for review by the Title IX Coordinator and the President. The complainant and the respondent will also have an opportunity to meet with the Title IX Coordinator to discuss their views about the report, within the ten-day period for submitting personal impact statements.

8. The President will review the investigation report and the impact statements. The President may accept the investigation report or request that the investigator pursue additional information. If additional information is collected, the complainant and respondent will have an opportunity to review the revised report and amend their impact statements.
9. The President has the following options:
 - a. Accept the investigator's finding that the respondent is not responsible. The President has the discretion of implementing remedial measures even when there is a finding of not responsible.
 - b. Accept the investigator's finding that the respondent is responsible and determine appropriate disciplinary action and other remedial measures.
10. A copy of the President's decision will be provided to the complainant and respondent. The respondent will be fully informed of any sanctions. In cases of sexual violence, the complainant will also be fully informed of any sanctions. For other policy violations, the complainant will be informed only of those sanctions that directly relate to the complainant.
11. Investigations conducted under this policy and procedures are entirely administrative and are not considered legal proceedings. Neither party may audio or video record interviews or meetings.
12. The Title IX Coordinator will retain records of all reports, investigations and resolutions. Affirmative findings of responsibility are part of the individuals' formal records.
13. An individual who is found to have committed a criminal sex offense will be subject to disciplinary action, suspension, expulsion or termination from MMW+C.

PROCEDURE

- If the employee is dissatisfied, the concern should be presented in writing to the employee's immediate supervisor within 10 days of the event or within seven days if related to employment separation. The supervisor will respond in writing within seven days of receipt of document.
- Within seven days of the supervisor's written response to the employee, the employee may appeal, in writing, the finding of the supervisor to the president. The president or designee will investigate the facts and present a response in writing within seven days of receipt.

The concerned employee may be accompanied by a fellow employee at any step of this process. All actions must be appropriately recorded in the employee's personnel file.

150.030 – DISCIPLINE POLICY

Date Revised: May 2017

POLICY

Maine Media Workshops + College's progressive discipline policy and procedures are designed to provide a structured corrective action process to improve and prevent a recurrence of undesirable employee behavior and performance issues. It has been designed consistent with Maine Media organizational values, human resource (HR) best practices and employment laws.

Outlined below are the steps of Maine Media's progressive discipline policy and procedure. Maine Media reserves the right to combine or skip steps depending on the facts of each situation and the nature of the offense. The level of disciplinary intervention may also vary. Some of the factors that will be considered are whether the offense is repeated despite coaching, counseling or training, the employee's work record, and the impact the conduct and performance issues have on the organization.

PROCEDURE

Step 1: Counseling and verbal warning

Step 1 creates an opportunity for the immediate supervisor to schedule a meeting with an employee to bring attention to the existing performance, conduct or attendance issue. The supervisor should discuss with the employee the nature of the problem or the violation of company policies and procedures. The supervisor is expected to clearly describe expectations and steps the employee must take to improve performance or resolve the problem.

Within five business days of this meeting, the supervisor will prepare written documentation of a Step 1 meeting. The employee will be asked to sign this document to demonstrate his or her understanding of the issues and the corrective action.

Step 2: Written warning

Although Maine Media hopes that the employee will promptly correct any performance, conduct or attendance issues that were identified in Step 1, Maine Media recognizes that this may not always occur. The Step 2 written warning involves more formal documentation of the performance, conduct or attendance issues and consequences. During Step 2, the immediate supervisor and a director will meet with the employee to review any additional incidents or information about the performance, conduct or attendance issues as well as any prior relevant corrective action plans. Management will outline the consequences for the employee of his or her continued failure to meet performance or conduct expectations.

A formal performance improvement plan requiring the employee's immediate and sustained corrective action will be issued within five business days of a Step 2 meeting. A warning outlining that the employee may be subject to additional discipline up to and including termination if immediate and sustained corrective action is not taken may also be included in the written warning.

Step 3: Suspension and final written warning

There may be performance, conduct or safety incidents so problematic and harmful that the most effective action may be the temporary removal of the employee from the workplace. When immediate action is necessary to ensure the safety of the employee or others, the immediate supervisor or other designated director may suspend the employee pending the results of an investigation.

Suspensions that are recommended as part of the normal progression of this progressive discipline policy and procedure are subject to approval from a next-level manager.

Depending on the seriousness of the infraction, the employee may be suspended without pay in full-day increments consistent with federal, state and local wage-and-hour employment laws. Nonexempt/hourly employees may not substitute or use an accrued vacation, personal or sick day in lieu of the unpaid suspension. Due to Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) compliance issues, unpaid suspension of salaried/exempt employees is reserved for serious workplace safety or conduct issues. The business office will provide guidance so that the discipline is administered without jeopardizing the FLSA exemption status. Pay may be restored to the employee if an investigation of the incident or infraction absolves the employee.

Step 4: Recommendation for termination of employment

The last and most serious step in the progressive discipline procedure is a recommendation to terminate employment. Generally, Maine Media will try to exercise the progressive nature of this policy by first providing warnings, a final written warning or suspension from the workplace before proceeding to a recommendation to terminate employment. However, Maine Media reserves the right to combine and skip steps depending on the circumstances of each situation and the nature of the offense. Furthermore, employees may be terminated without prior notice or disciplinary action.

Management’s recommendation to terminate employment must be approved by the President or Vice President of Academic Affairs.

APPEAL PROCESS

Employees will have the opportunity to present information that may challenge information management has used to issue disciplinary action. The purpose of this process is to provide insight into extenuating circumstances that may have contributed to the employee’s performance or conduct issues while allowing for an equitable solution. If the employee does not present this information during any of the step meetings, he or she will have five business days after that meeting to present such information.

Performance and Conduct Issues Not Subject to Progressive Discipline

Behavior that is illegal is not subject to progressive discipline, and such behavior may be reported to local law enforcement authorities.

Similarly, theft, substance abuse, intoxication, fighting and other acts of violence at work are also not subject to progressive discipline and may be grounds for immediate termination.

Documentation

The employee will be provided copies of all progressive discipline documentation, including all performance improvement plans. The employee will be asked to sign copies of this documentation attesting to his or her receipt and understanding of the corrective action outlined in these documents.

Copies of these documents will be placed in the employee’s official personnel file.

Important note: Nothing in this policy provides any contractual rights regarding employee discipline or counseling, nor should anything in this policy be read or construed as modifying or altering the employment-at-will relationship between Maine Media Workshops + College and its employees.

The following procedures and guidelines are to ensure accurate recordkeeping and compliance within Maine Media.

OFFICIAL TIME OF RECORD

Disciplinary action will occur for reoccurrence of non-compliance with this policy. An employee should refer to the Business Office if help with the uAttend system is needed.

PROCEDURE

If a non-exempt employee is missing hours and eligible for Maine Media's time off benefits, an email must be sent to his/her supervisor so that an adjustment can be made to the time card. All time off requests should be submitted to their supervisor using Maine Media's time off form, if possible, and before the time off has occurred.

DAILY CLOCK IN/CLOCK OUT REQUIREMENTS

It is a job requirement that all non-exempt employees must 'clock in' and 'clock out' at the start of their shift and at the end of their shift. Employees leaving for personal reasons during the day must clock out when leaving and back in upon returning.

TIME CLOCK POLICY AND GUIDELINES

Any falsification or misrepresentation of time and attendance information may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination. Supervisors are responsible for ensuring that the work and time off reported accurately reflects each employee's activity for each pay period and validate this by approving the employee's time card. Intentional errors in reporting hours worked can result in serious consequences to the individuals involved.

ROUNDING HOURS WORKED

The FLSA allows an employer to round employee time to the nearest quarter hour. uAttend punches will be rounded according to a seven-minute grace period with a fifteen minute round.

Use the following guide when determining the round:

7:53am to 8:07am = 8:00am

8:08am to 8:22am = 8:15am

8:23am to 8:37am = 8:30am

8:38am to 8:52am = 8:45am

Employees are expected to clock in and out at their regularly scheduled times, as close to the beginning and end of their shift as possible. Employees should punch in no sooner than seven (7) minutes prior to the beginning of their shift and punch out no later than seven (7) minutes after their shift ends. Employees who continually punch in late or punch out early are subject to disciplinary action.

MISSED PUNCHES AND ADJUSTMENTS

An employee who misses a punch should notify his/her supervisor via email of any edits that need to be made to the timecard. Under certain conditions when an employee cannot clock in at their worksite, the employee should report times worked to their supervisor via email so their times can be manually entered.

MULTIPLE DEPARTMENT CODES

If an employee is paid from multiple departments or has more than one position within the organization, they will be assigned a separate job code for each position. It is the responsibility of the employee to ensure that they are clocking in on the correct code at all times. Failure to clock in and out or transfer correctly on multiple job codes may result in corrective action. If the employee is unsure which job code to use, he/she should contact their supervisor or the Business Office for clarification. Employees who have clocked in or transferred incorrectly using the wrong job code will need to notify their supervisor by email prior to the close of the pay period so their time can be corrected.

MEALS

All meal periods are considered unpaid time and non-exempt employees must clock in and out.

BREAKS

Non-exempt employees are required to clock out for breaks that exceed 10 minutes.

UNREPORTED HOURS

The FLSA does not permit an employer to benefit from the work of an employee without compensating them for such work. Therefore, all hours worked by non-exempt employees must be reported using the uAttend timekeeping system. Any time spent working while not clocked in ('working off the clock') is strictly prohibited. Employees are required to clock in before performing any work and are not permitted to clock out until all work has stopped. Employees that under report or fail to report hours worked are subject to corrective action up to and including termination. Examples of 'working off the clock' may include:

- Forgetting to clock in or out

- Voluntarily continuing to work at the end of regular working hours
- Taking work home to complete on the weekend or in the evening
- Checking/reading/reviewing work-related emails or listening to work-related voice mails while away from the office or workplace.
- Answering phones, emails, or attending to student while clocked out for a lunch break.

Once an employee has clocked in, he/she is responsible for starting work. When a shift has been completed, it is the employee's responsibility to clock out. Employees conducting personal business or simply not working while clocked in may be considered 'riding the clock' and could be subject to corrective action up to and including termination.

TIME OFF REQUESTS

Time off requests must be requested with a time off form before the time is actually taken. (See TIME OFF POLICIES – 180.010, 180.020, 180.030) If an employee was unable to request the time off in advance, the employee must email their supervisor to inform them of what paid time off was taken. Employees are not paid for paid time off taken in excess of the available balance. Paid time off does not count towards hours worked for computing overtime.

HOLIDAYS

Holiday pay will automatically be given to eligible employees in the uAttend system. (See 180.040-PAID HOLIDAYS policy)

CLOCK OR SYSTEM PROBLEMS

Clocks may not continue to collect data during power outages, network, clock or system malfunctions. Employees should track their hours manually and the time will be adjust by their supervisor in the uAttend system.

DISCIPLINARY ACTION

An employee may be subject to disciplinary action up to, and including, termination for the following:

- Any attempt to tamper with the timekeeping hardware or software
- Interfering with another employee's use of time clocks
- Falsifying another employee's clocking transactions
- Failure to use the uAttend system properly
- Failure to promptly verify and reconcile time and paid time off records
- Falsification of hours actually worked
- Excessive missed punches without a valid (specific) reason
- Excessive early or late punches
- Excessive unauthorized overtime
- Refusing to punch in/out for meals or breaks

Normally, employees will be required to give 30 day advance notice of the need for leave. Where leave is not foreseeable in advance, then notice shall be given as soon as possible before the leave commences. The failure to give adequate notice may result in denial of the right to use accrued paid time off for this purpose and/or disciplinary action.

Paid Family and Medical Leave under this policy is limited to 40 hours in any 12-month period. All hours used for Paid Family and Medical Leave must be earned by the employee at the time the leave is taken.

Employees who take paid time off under this Paid Family and Medical Leave Policy must expressly designate the time as Paid Family and Medical Leave on their time off form or notify their supervisors in writing of their intention to use Paid Family and Medical Leave. The failure by an employee to properly designate an absence as Paid Family and Medical Leave prior to any receipt of compensation for the period of the leave may result in denial of the paid leave and/or the absence being treated for disciplinary purposes as not Paid Family and Medical Leave.

The organization reserves the right to request verification of illness for leave taken under Paid Family and Medical Leave.

What's the Difference?

Paid Sick Leave, FMLA, and Paid Family and Medical Leave are all types of paid or unpaid time off from work, but they are distinct policies and, where enacted, laws. Each year a few weeks prior to the collection, DOE sends a letter and a registration certificate to the President of Maine Media Workshops + College. The certificate contains information necessary to access the survey and enter data. The letter and registration certificate will be routed to the Business Office for appropriate handling. Mandatory Reporters: What and Why?

There are three federal laws that establish responsibilities for employees of colleges to report certain types of crimes and incidents, especially sexual misconduct--the Clery Act, Title VII and Title IX. Each of these areas of federal law has a different purpose, but generally the laws are intended to protect members of the campus community, visitors and guests from criminal and discriminatory behavior. The responsibilities established by these laws give rise to the term “mandatory reporter.” Reporting of concerning and disruptive behaviors is not legally mandated, but is a policy mandate to assist Maine Media Workshops + College in early identification and detection of at-risk situations. Additionally, state law imposes mandates with respect to the reporting of child abuse and sexual abuse as follows...

The Legal Context

The Clery Act creates a duty for institutions to report crimes in 15 different categories and has the broadest scope. It is Maine Media that has the duty to report these crimes and failure to do so can result in substantial fines being imposed on the institution by the Department of Education.

Title VII focuses on sexual harassment in the workplace and failure to take appropriate action can lead to financial liability for the College. In this case, the law creates a duty to report for employees who supervise other employees, including students being paid by the College.

Title IX focuses on the adverse consequences faced by victims of gender discrimination and sexual harassment and creates obligations for the College to investigate and to provide a “prompt and effective remedy.” If the victim is a student, Title IX means among other things that the College must provide a safe environment that does not interfere with the victim’s right to pursue an education. The College incurs this obligation when a victim has given notice to a “responsible employee or faculty,” or when the College, in the exercise of reasonable care, should have known, about the assault or harassment.

PROCEDURE

Maine Media Workshops + College asks that all incident and/or behaviors be reported in a timely manner, by way of the online incident form found at www.mainemedia.edu/incidentreport. This form is monitored by the Business/HR Manager. This Business/HR Manager may coordinate with Director(s) and/or the President in determining best actions for resolution.

If you learn about sexual harassment, discrimination or sexual assault, you are expected to promptly complete the incident report or contact the campus Title IX Coordinator, Jane Richardson at titleix@mainemedia.edu, 207.236.8581 x308 or a message may be left on the Title IX hotline 802.962.1465. She will take responsibility for prompt notification of appropriate Maine Media officials.

When reporting sexual harassment or discrimination or sexual assault, an employee or faculty member may initially be able to omit personally identifiable information (the name of the victim, the name of the accused individual, and other identifying details about witnesses, location, etc.). The Title IX Coordinator will guide you with regard to how much detail is needed in an initial report. Subsequent to an initial report, campus officials may need additional information in order to fulfill Maine Media’s obligations under Title IX. In taking these subsequent actions, Maine Media will always be guided by the goals of empowering the victim and allowing the victim to retain as much control over the process as possible, but no employee or faculty member can or should promise confidentiality.

The Clery Act requires reporting of 15 serious crimes, including sexual assault. Sexual harassment and discrimination are not covered by the Clery Act, but reporting of such incidents is required under Title IX. Employees and faculty are expected to report crimes covered by the Clery Act without delay. Employees and faculty may choose -- but are not required -- to provide personally identifiable information (the name of the victim, the name of the accused individual, and other identifying details about witnesses, specific location, etc.) unless a clear threat to health or safety is present.

The Clery Act does not establish an obligation for Maine Media to conduct an investigation of the reported crime, only to report the crime as a statistic following Clery Act guidelines. In some cases, Maine Media may also be required to release a timely warning to the community about a threat to the community. In such cases, an initial investigation or determination of the nature of the threat may be conducted, after which a warning will be issued immediately.

Individuals under the age of 20 must have prior approval from the organizations insurance company in order to be included on the authorized driver list. Students (including work study students), interns and faculty are not permitted to drive any company vehicle at any time. This benefit is a privilege, not a right, and the use of a vehicle can be revoked at any time. We cannot list rules to cover every situation, and employees are expected to use good judgment with respect to the use of company vehicles.

PROCEDURE

We encourage you to drive safely. We require all personnel who drive for the company to:

- Complete a driver's safety evaluation by the Operations Manager or authorized employee
 - Authorized drivers are removed from the company's insurance policy at the end of every calendar year and must complete a driver's safety evaluation every year.

Your driving is a direct reflection on you and the company. The organization's insurance company may not allow you to drive a company vehicle while on company business if you have a poor driving record. Our insurance rates are highly affected by your driving record.

We do not differentiate between violations occurring during working and nonworking hours, or whether the violation occurred prior to your employment with the company. You are responsible for any fines or other penalties assessed against you. This also includes parking tickets.

It is the policy of Maine Media to check driving records. Receiving a Driving While Intoxicated (DWI) or Driving Under the Influence (DUI) violation may lead to immediate dismissal. We expect all of our personnel to drive responsibly and to follow basic rules of defensive driving for the protection of you, students, other motorists, and the company.

Safe-Driving Practices

Drivers should not follow another vehicle so closely that they cannot stop safely within the clear distance ahead. Driving a company vehicle that is loaded with students and/or equipment is unlike driving a passenger car, and your driving should be adjusted to compensate for the additional size and weight. Make sure all loads are secured.

When backing up, always observe the following precautions:

- Check that no objects or individuals are behind the vehicle.
- Watch both sides of the vehicle, using mirrors or another passenger as help.
- Back up slowly.

Signal all lane changes and turns well in advance. Avoid sudden steering movements, which can cause a slide.

If you slide:

- Don't hit brakes suddenly.
- Don't over steer.
- Steer in the direction the vehicle is sliding.

Seat Belts

It is a State law and a company policy that seat belts must be worn at all times for every driver and passenger in the vehicle.

Security

Unattended company vehicles must be locked—side doors and overhead doors—at all times to prevent theft of company and/or personal property. In the event that the vehicle is vandalized during working hours, you will be reimbursed for the cost of your equipment provided that:

- The company vehicle was locked.
- The theft was reported immediately to your supervisor.
- And police are immediately called.

Personal Use

The purpose of Maine Media vehicles is to provide service to our existing students and personal use of company vehicles is strictly prohibited. NO Maine Media owned vehicles or trailer(s) may be used for any other purpose than Maine Media business.

Smoking

Smoking is not permitted in company vehicles.

Drive-Ins/Drive-Thrus

It is the policy of the company to prohibit drivers from using fast-food or bank drive-ins or drive-thrus. Please park the vehicle and go into the building.

Maintenance

It is company policy that you maintain our vehicle as if it were your own personal auto. The following guidelines are to be adhered to by employees who drive company owned vehicles:

- It is the responsibility of the driver to make sure that the vehicle is equipped with proof of insurance, current registration, and state inspection.
- Please keep clean the outside, inside, and back of your vehicle. All tools and other materials must be properly strapped down. Vehicles are inspected regularly for cleanliness.

Failure to adhere to any of the above policies can result in loss of driving privileges and/or other disciplinary action.

Gasoline Purchases

Gas cards are provided as a convenience to all drivers of company vehicles. Gas cards are checked out by the business office during regular office hours. Gasoline is to be purchased and used in company vehicles only. Anyone violating this policy will be subject to disciplinary action.

Gas receipts should be turned in as soon as possible with the gas card. Tag number, date, mileage, and any other information given to the attendant must be correct. If the attendant does not enter the information properly, you are responsible to see that it is corrected. Your name and class you used the vehicle for must also be clearly printed on the receipt.

The monthly statement from the gas company is audited by the business office. Discrepancies are verified and miles-per-gallon statistics are evaluated. Incorrect or lost gas receipts could delay processing of our payment. Your cooperation in this will be appreciated.

Reporting Accidents and Injuries

Since the personal health and safety of every employee and student is of the greatest importance to the organization, every attempt should be made to reduce the possibility of accident occurrence.

Police should be called immediately after any accident. The police report must be submitted to the business office upon completion. All accidents and injuries, no matter how minor, should be reported to the business office immediately. Incident report may be submitted on Maine Media website www.mainemedia.edu/incidentreport. This is for your protection in case medical attention is necessary or in the event of some future complication caused by the accident.

If first aid is necessary, the business office will instruct you to go to the Occupational Health Clinic that we belong to. If needed, transportation will be provided. The proper treatment will be obtained for all injuries that require professional medical care. Should the injury be more than just first aid treatment call for an ambulance immediately.

It is the policy of the company to require that all employees submit to a drug and alcohol test after an on-the-job accident or injury, particularly when a vehicle is involved. The tests will be paid for by the company and the results will be kept strictly confidential.

The company provides workers' compensation insurance on every employee. It protects you for loss of pay and time and for the cost of medical care for injuries sustained while working. There is a one (1) week waiting period before compensation begins.

If you are involved in an accident, we require that you:

- Obtain all information relating to the accident in a professional manner, including the names and addresses of any witnesses.
- Do not negotiate the settlement of any claim, promise payment for any injury or damage, or admit liability.

You must complete Maine Media's online incident report at www.mainemedia.edu/incidentreport or obtain a hard copy from the business office for all accidents and injuries with 24 hours. Completed incident reports provide necessary information to the business office to allow the processing of claims with our or other motorists' insurance companies. Any damage to our vehicle, no matter how slight, must be noted on the accident report.

240.070 – CELL PHONE USE

Date Revised: April 2013

POLICY

It is the policy of Maine Media Workshops + College to provide identified employees with cellular phones. Maine Media's cellular phone plan may have a limited amount of minutes and/or data per month. Please see Business Office for employee allotment. Employees exceeding their allotted minutes and/or data due to personal use will be charged. Maine Media prohibits the use of cellular phones in any way that violates federal, state, or local laws or that is otherwise unsafe. This policy outlines the safe use of business-provided and personal cellular phones while working.

PROCEDURE

While working, employees are expected to exercise the same discretion in using cellular phones, whether provided by Maine Media or personal, as is expected for the use of Maine Media's phones. Excessive personal calls during work time, regardless of the phone used, can interfere with employee productivity and be distracting to others. The organization will not be liable for the loss of a personal cellular phone brought into the workplace.

Employees in possession of Maine Media's equipment such as cellular phones are expected to protect the equipment from loss, damage, or theft. Upon resignation or termination of employment, or at any time upon request, the employee may be asked to produce the phone for return or inspection. Employees unable to present the phone in good working condition within the time period requested may be expected to bear the cost of a replacement.

Employees who separate from employment with outstanding debts for equipment loss or unauthorized charges will be considered to have left employment on unsatisfactory terms and may be subject to legal action for recovery of the loss.

Employees whose job responsibilities include regular or occasional driving and who are issued a cellular phone for business use are expected to refrain from using a hand-held cellular phone while driving. Safety must come before all other concerns. Regardless of the circumstances, including slow or stopped traffic, employees are strongly encouraged to pull off to the side of the road and safely stop the vehicle before placing or accepting a call. If acceptance of a call is unavoidable and pulling over is not an option, employees are expected to keep the call short, use hands-free equipment if available, refrain from discussion of complicated or emotional discussions and keep their eyes on the road. Special care should be taken in situations where there is traffic, inclement weather, or the employee is driving in an unfamiliar area.

In situations where job responsibilities include regular driving and accepting of business calls, hands-free equipment will be provided to facilitate the provisions of this policy. Under no circumstances are employees allowed to place themselves at risk to fulfill business needs.

Under no circumstances should an employee send or receive a text while driving. Maine State Law prohibits texting while driving.

Employees who are charged with traffic violations resulting from the use of their cellular phone or texting while driving will be solely responsible for all liabilities that result from such actions.
